Dayton, O., Nov. 30, 1909.
W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.
Dear Sir—I have worn your $3.50 shoes for the past 10 years. They have always given me perfect satisfaction. I regard them the equal to any $5.00 or $6.00 shoes in wear, fit and comfort. ALBERT KERN, Lawyer, 23 Callahan Block.

If I could take you into my large factory at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would see why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other make.
CAUTION! See that W. L. Douglas name is stamped on the bottom. TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

ARBITRATION PLAN FAILS

WAIST MANUFACTURERS STICK TO THEIR GUNS.

Will Not Meet the Delegates of the State Board of Arbitration—Mrs. Valenter the Strikers, Declares That More Employers Have Yielded to the Union.

The belief of the committee of the State Board of Arbitration appointed by Labor Commissioner Williams to act in the waistmakers strike, that both sides would come together to agree at any rate on what the open shops and the closed shops officially meant, has proved to be without foundation. The reply of the manufacturers reached the State arbitrators yesterday forenoon, and while neither they nor the employers would give out the reply it was declared emphatically by the manufacturers at the Hoffman House that they will have no more arbitration conferences.

"The offer of the State board has been declined, and that is all there is to it," said Chairman Simon of the manufacturers' association. "Further conferences would be useless as far as we are concerned."

Despite all this, John Lundregan and Col. Reagan, the State arbitrators, arranged to meet the committee of the strikers this afternoon at 114 East Twenty-eighth street. The illness of Joseph Goldstein of the committee prevented a meeting yesterday.

Mrs. O. H. Belmont, accompanied by Miss Mary E. Deane of the State Board Union League, went to 114 East Twenty-eighth street yesterday and were disappointed that the conference was postponed. It was said that Mrs. Belmont and Miss Deane will attend the conference to-day.

Mrs. Valen, who speaks for the strikers and all who are aiding them, said yesterday that she had been in the office of Solomon Schindler, the leader of the strike, and that Schindler showed her several union agreements made with members of the Associated Waist and Dress Manufacturers. Their strikers, she said, had returned to work under a closed shop agreement. Their employers remain in the association, the strikers having been supposed to be reemployed on the open shop plan. One of the men who it is alleged made these secret agreements is an influential member in the manufacturers' association, she said.

At the headquarters of the association the manufacturers heard this with surprise, but expressed incredulity. Samuel Friedman, attorney for the association, said:

It is largely a question of honor to stand together on the open shop. There are no members we know who would be likely to do a thing like this, but the matter will be investigated.

It was said on behalf of the strikers last night that while $1,500 a day was received for the strikers, there was a need of $2,500 a day. The treasury of the union is expected yesterday, but more money is expected to-day. A meeting for the benefit of the strikers is to be held at the New Amsterdam theatre on Friday and a week's performances are to be given at this theatre the strikers to get one-half of the proceeds of the shows they sell.

Mayor Thanks Young Fennell.
It was said at the City Hospital in Jersey City last night that Thomas Fennell, the nineteen-year-old boy who ran into the burning apartment house at 331 Montgomery street early on Sunday morning and routed out sleeping tenants until he was obliged to jump from a second-story window to save his own life, was now recovering. He is a well known member of St. Bridget's Lyceum.

QUEER FOOTBALL DEATH.

Boy Dies of Tumors More Than Two Months After His Injury.

Floyd E. Huff, 19 years old, died at his home, 343 North Seventh street, Newark, yesterday of injuries suffered in a football game last October. He attended the North Seventh street public school. On October 23 the football eleven of the school went to Nutley to play a game with the high school team of that place.
Huff was at quarterback.

The score was close, and near the end of the first half the ball was near the Newark team's goal. A signal was given to punt, and after Huff had passed the ball to the fullback he slipped and the latter kicked him in the spine. Huff remained in the game until it was over and said nothing about it to his parents.
He went back to school again. On November 30 the boy told his mother he could no longer stand the pain in his back and he was put to bed. The doctor found that a tumorous growth had formed.
Huff's body was covered with rash and little lumps formed all over him. One of the lumps was removed and the doctors said they were tumors and that there was no chance for the boy's recovery.

DANCED A JIG AT 100.

Cut Out Tobacco and Whiskey, the Latter Not Easily, When Near 90.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Jan. 4.—William Redmond, Oakhurst's oldest resident, danced a jig on his 100th birthday to-day.
The old man, who comes from Revolutionary stock, was born at Tuckahoe, N. J.
Until last September he was under the impression that he was only 98, but the discovery of the lost family Bible revealed his true age.

In honor of Redmond's birthday Miss Mary E. Gugel, at whose home he lives, planned a birthday party, and the whole neighborhood, including the village parson, was invited.

Uncle Billy, as he is known, made a trip to Brooklyn alone last June and visited relatives. He walked the Brooklyn bridges. He used tobacco and liquor until he was 80.

"I chewed my last plug of tobacco about twenty-odd years ago," he said to-day. "Tobacco never did me any good; only made me nervous. I did hate to give up drinking an occasional sip of whiskey, but I have got along just as well without it and am happy."

Tea to Aid City Visiting Committee.

The New York city visiting committee of the State Charities Aid Association will give a Japanese tea on the afternoon of January 14 at the Café de l'Opera, Broadway and Forty-second street. The attendees will be Japanese women, and the orchestra will be composed of Japanese musicians. Tickets, which are $2 each, can be had from Edward A. Sheldon, treasurer of the committee, at 105 East Twenty-second street. The tea is in honor of Mrs. Edward P. Fowler of 38 West Fortieth street, assisted by Miss Clara Irvine, Miss Marion P. Tabor, Homer Folk, F. C. Boynton, Mrs. Walter Shaw Brewster, Howard R. Bayne and Courtenay Dinwiddie.

Panama's Deported American.

W. P. Spiller, the American who was deported from Panama by order of the President for enticing laborers from the Isthmian Canal Zone, is a passenger by the Royal Mail steamship Thames, due to-day from Kingston, Jamaica.
He says he will take the subject of his expulsion to the State Department at Washington.

Rural Free Delivery by Auto.
BURBANK, Cal., Jan. 4.—Mrs. B. F.
Beal, rural carrier of this district, which includes Jim Jeffries's alfalfa ranch, now carries mail in an auto. She has just bought a new 1910 machine and makes her twenty-five-mile route in one third the time she used to take with a horse and wagon.

Make Comparisons

There is no lack of opportunity for you to compare qualities and prices of Muslin Underwear just now. People who have done so affirm that the greatest values are here. Don't stop with the lower-priced garments. The greatest savings are on the finer ones. It is a notable fact that the more you pay here the more you save—using prices for similar grades elsewhere as standards of comparisons.

When you have exhausted this supply of Muslin Underwear equal values cannot be offered until the next cotton crop has been picked—and maybe not then.

Men's Motoring Coats

Most men who motor need no introduction to Burberry Coats from London. Burberry Garments have won distinction throughout two continents. They are as nearly perfect as Cloth Coats for automobilism can well be. Warmthful and protecting without being burdensome or cumbersome. When you don a Burberry you're sure rain, or snow, or sleet or wind can't get at you and the feeling is not impressed upon you by any sense of physical weight.

Men's Burberry Coats, made of medium weight tan Gabardine cloth, lined with light all-wool material that baffles the weather $47.74

At $54.75—Men's Burberry Coats, made of tan Gabardine, full double-breasted model, semi-distachable vest, wool lining. At the same price—Men's Coats made of Burberry cloth, a fuzzy weave, in gray, brown and green, plaid wool lining. One of the lightest, sightliest and most comfortable garments we have.

Men's Burberry Cloth Coats, in tan and brown mixtures, finished with Persian lamb collar, lined with natural muskrat $98.75

Others lined with muskrat, sabled squirrel and raccoon, $174.00 with Persian lamb, raccoon and other collars, 40 to 100.
